

Australian Academy of Law

Symposium

The Victorian Charter of Rights – Past Present and Future

WHEN: 5:00pm – 7:00pm
Thursday, 19 April 2012

WHERE: Banco Court – Courtroom 1
Supreme Court of Victoria
210 William St, Melbourne 3000
(Entry via William Street Entrance)

An exchange on the Victorian Charter of Rights. The Symposium brings together distinguished panel members to address the challenging philosophical and practical issues that arise in relation to the Charter. Momcilovic v The Queen [2011] HCA 34 will be discussed.

THE SPEAKERS and PANEL MEMBERS:

The Symposium will be introduced by The Hon Justice Marilyn Warren, AC, FAAL, Chief Justice of Victoria

Panel Members

- *The Hon Justice Marcia Neave, AO, FAAL, Court of Appeal, Supreme Court of Victoria
- *The Hon Justice Kevin Bell, Justice, Supreme Court of Victoria
- *The Hon Justice Geoffrey Nettle, Supreme Court of Victoria
- *Associate Professor Jeremy Gans, FAAL, University of Melbourne Law School

THE PROGRAM:

- (i) The Hon Kevin Lindgren, AM, QC, FAAL, President of the Australian Academy of Law, welcomes audience members to the Symposium.
- (ii) The Hon Chief Justice Warren AC, FAAL to introduce the Symposium.
- (iii) Panel Members
 - The Hon Justice Geoffrey Nettle
 - The Hon Justice Marcia Neave, AO, FAAL
 - The Hon Justice Kevin Bell
 - Associate Professor Jeremy Gans, FAAL
- (iv) John Digby QC, FAAL, Director and President of the Commercial Bar Association of Victoria to deliver a word of thanks.

REGISTER NOW!!

REGISTRATION DETAILS

The Symposium is free to attend.

To RSVP please email:
johndigbyqc@vicbar.com.au
or telephone Kerrie,
Assistant to John Digby QC
on
(03) 9225 7498

Please note that numbers are strictly limited. To avoid disappointment register early to secure your seat at the Symposium. It is requested that you also arrive early to allow sufficient time to pass through security. Please RSVP by 30 March 2012